Be careful not to hit the wall or eat your tail! Coolmath snake game is different from most. When you eat apples, your tail grows by four blocks instead of the usual one. Snakes are also moving faster than classic games, so you'll have to think fast! How long can you survive? Snake Tips & Tips For Sharpening Change A good trick to have under your belt as you play snake is the ability to turn a little. Since snakes are fast, crashing can happen before you can meet. The more you play, the more you try to master those sharp turns to escape narrowly, hitting the walls. It can be tempting to grab an apple as fast as you can, but if you miss a narrow apple, it is better to wait until your snake tail has moved away from it before going on another pass. Hug the wall. As you play, your tail snake will grow and grow with every apple you eat. A simple trick to avoid bumping into your wall or tail is to track the perimeter of the screen. This will keep the rest of the field open and easy to navigate. Use zigzag Snake's the best move! If you find that your tail has been a bit too long, quickly switch from side to side to create a zig-zag pattern on the screen. Moving this way will buy you time as the rest of the tail catches up. Whatever you learn from playing snake serpent, snake player can help improve hand-eye coordination and reaction time because you will need to act quickly to keep the snake from crashing this game into the game playing a classic game of strategy.
